ADORATION CHAPEL UPDATE

Things continue to progress nicely regarding the Adoration chapel.

We would like to announce that we've selected a name: Our Lady of Refuge Adoration Chapel. Our Lady of Refuge is a title of Mary used in the Litany of Loreto. We would like this chapel to be a place of peace and refuge for all who are troubled in any way. There is a strong link between Mary and the Sacred Heart. Her heart was united to that of her Son Jesus in His Passion (as was prophesied by Simeon in the Temple- see Lk 2:35) and she always leads us to the Eucharistic Heart of Our Lord.

We have formally petitioned the Diocese for approval of the Adoration Chapel. All the bids from subcontractors are in and we will be awarding the bids as soon as we receive approval from the Diocese.

Our tentative ground-breaking date is May 13!!
Thanks for all your support and prayers!

TRIDUUM

Holy Week is the high point of our Church year. You are encouraged to enter into the mysteries of our redemption through the Triduum Liturgies.

Join Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane
Holy Thursday, April 18 following the 7 p.m. Mass up to the Good Friday, April 19, 1 p.m. Service.

When Jesus returned to his disciples he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." - Matthew 26:40-41

Join Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane for Eucharistic Adoration at the Altar of Repose any time between the Holy Thursday Mass and the Good Friday service. A constant vigil will be kept through the night and into the morning. Please join the vigil as you are able for silent prayer, reading or meditation. The Altar will be in the church office. Quietly enter through the front door and proceed straight into the main Conference room. Consider spending an hour with Jesus in the garden as part of your Lenten journey.

Good Friday – 1:00 p.m. Service

We venerate the Cross as we remember Our Savior's ultimate sacrifice.

Easter Vigil – 8:00 p.m. Mass

We initiate new members into the Church through Baptism, as we enter into the Joy of the Resurrection of Jesus!

The air handler project will begin on Monday, April 22nd. The contract was awarded to Modern Heating and Air Conditioning out of Black Earth. This project will last 3 weeks. The daily Mass schedule will be revised for at least the first two weeks from April 23 - May 3. Mass times will now be at 5:15 pm Tuesday-Friday. There will be no change to the weekend Mass schedule.

Please return all Rice Bowls to the basket in the back of Church or to the Parish Office. Thank you!

Psalm 22

One of the most touching and heart-wrenching psalms comes to us in this week's mass. Psalm 22: "My God, My God, why have you abandoned me?" This psalm has been interpreted two different ways. In a general sense, it is a person crying out to God for help and assistance in life's trials. In the last verses of the psalm the same person is thanking God for helping them. A secondary interpretation has been stated that this could be the cry of the Jewish people during their plight of going into exile. It's a very heartfelt psalm that speaks to the solemnity of Lent.

Upcoming Choir Rehearsals:
Monday, April 15th @ 7:15pm

JUSTICE & PEACE

Earth Day Celebration: April 22, 2019

This should be a particularly meaningful day for those of us in Wisconsin. Earth Day was founded by our former U.S. Senator, Gaylord Nelson, of Clear Lake, WI. Earth Day is all about celebrating Mother Earth. It is also an opportunity for us to stop, reflect, and act on the teachings in "Laudato Si", Pope Francis's encyclical "On Care for Our Common Home". The Holy Father's message is clear: caring for our environment is a fundamental tenet of our Catholic faith. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops website states: "We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored". We are all called to be good stewards of our home, Planet Earth. What can you do to be a better steward? Start by just doing something or something more than you are currently doing. It could be as simple as following "Reuse, Recycle, Repurpose", e.g., switching to LED bulbs, reducing use of non-recycle plastic bags, reducing food waste. It might be something more complex or difficult such as supporting a project to help assure every person on earth has access to clean water. When you have one project under control, assess your situation for another project needing attention. We walk this earth only once so we need to act now to assure those coming after us can also enjoy our planet.

Palm Sunday

Sacred Days

Lord Jesus, you entered Jerusalem amid resounding echoes of praise. We join the multitudes of your disciples, who through the ages, proclaim you as King. Strengthen us as we accompany you during these sacred days of singing and praying, in awe of your love. May we have the courage to follow you and be transformed by your sacrifice. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 14, 2019 - Messianic Entry

Today's Readings: Luke 19: 28–40; Isaiah 50:4–7; Psalm 22:8–9, 17–18, 19–20, 23–24; Philippians 2:6–11; Luke 22:14–23:56. Today, the faithful process with palms and sing “Hosanna,” remembering the Lord’s entrance to Jerusalem, an entry that would lead to his death. Today the readings proclaim Jesus as the king (Gospel at the procession), tell of how Jesus emptied himself to come in human form (Second Reading), and recount the Passion (Gospel).

As Jesus rode on a donkey into Jerusalem, the Romans were unaware of the meaning of the procession. The Jews, however, watched the fulfillment of the prophet Zechariah (9:9): “Behold: your king is coming to you, / a just savior is he, / Humble, and riding on a donkey, / on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”

Concerned, the Pharisees told Jesus to silence his followers. Knowing that all creation awaited his death and rising, Jesus replied that the stones would cry out.

The Romans dismiss Jesus, the Pharisees tried to suppress him, and the people celebrate him. How will you respond to the Lord during this holiest of weeks? Some will discount him by giving these days no importance, while others will suppress the meaning of the days. Still, some will enter into Holy Week and the Sacred Paschal Triduum through participation in the liturgy. They will celebrate the institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday, venerate the cross on Good Friday, and keep vigil on Holy Saturday as they listen to the Scriptures tell of salvation history.

This Week at Home

Monday, April 15 - Witness to the Power

Lazarus is a witness to the power of Jesus and knows that he is the Messiah. The Jews plot to arrest and kill both Jesus and Lazarus. The more we allow our relationship with Christ to change us, the more we will be rejected by the world. As Holy Week begins, consider how your relationship with Christ serves as a witness to the world. Today's Readings: Isaiah 42:1–7; Psalm 27:1, 2, 3, 13–14; John 12:1–11.

Tuesday, April 16 - Love and Betrayal

When Jesus tells his followers that one of them will betray him, they question who would be a traitor. Still, Peter, who has been with Jesus from the beginning of his mission, will end up denying Jesus three times. Jesus will be merciful when we return after disavowing him. Let us be mindful of our relationships that are in need of repair. How can we bring about healing in our parish and among our family? Today's Readings: Isaiah 49:1–6; Psalm 71:1–2, 3–4, 5–6, 15, 17; John 13:21–33, 35–38.

Wednesday, April 17 - Mercy and Forgiveness

Judas pays a high price for handing over Jesus. The price that he pays is much higher than the thirty pieces of silver that the chief priests paid him for handing over Jesus. His is the price of separating himself from Jesus and the love that the Lord offers. He chose not to believe in the forgiveness and mercy of God. Who in your community would benefit from an experience of your forgiveness mercy? Begin by praying for those whose actions are unkind and unfair. Today's Readings: Isaiah 50:4–9; Psalm 69:8–10, 21–22, 31, 33–34; Matthew 26:14–25.

Thursday, April 18 - Holy Thursday

Peter sees servitude in the washing of feet; Jesus, however, teaches that the act implies servanthood. By washing the disciples’ feet, Jesus shows that disciples serve others. What small act of love can you do for someone in your family today? What is one small act of help that you can offer to a neighbor? Today's Readings: Exodus 12:1–8, 11–14; Psalm 116:12–13, 15–16bc, 17–18; 1 Corinthians 11:23–26; John 13:1–15.

Friday, April 19 - Good Friday

At the liturgy today, the faithful will venerate the cross as they kiss, touch, or genuflect before it. The Church invites us to “Behold the wood of the Cross, on which hung the salvation of the world.” If a crucifix is in your home, place it on your prayer table today and spend time in quiet prayer before it. Today's Readings: Isaiah 52:13–53:12; Psalm 31:2, 6, 12–13, 15–16, 17, 25; Hebrews 4:14–16, 5:7–9; John 18:1–19:42.

Saturday, April 20 - Holy Saturday

At the Easter Vigil, the faithful gather around a fire and then in the church to hear the story of salvation. If unable to participate in the liturgy tonight, pray the psalms and the readings at your prayer table. What words of the prophets especially strike you? What aspect of the redemption story calls you to new life? Today's Readings: Genesis 1:1–2:2; Psalm 104:1–2, 5–6, 10, 12, 13–14, 24–35; Genesis 22:1–18; Psalm 16:5, 8, 9–10, 11; Exodus 14:15–15:1; Psalm: Exodus 15:1–2, 3–4, 5–6, 17–18; Isaiah 54:5–14; Psalm 30:2, 4, 5–6, 11–12, 13; Isaiah 55:1–11; Psalm: Isaiah 12:2–3, 4, 5–6; Baruch 3:9–15, 32–4:4; Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11; Ezekiel 36:16–17a, 18–28; Psalm 51:12–13, 14–15, 18–19; Romans 6:3–11; Psalm 118:1–2, 16, 17, 22–23; Luke 24:1–12.
